Policy for using the War Memorial Hall Facebook site

The Memorial Hall maintains an extensive and very active Facebook page to share and disseminate information about activities related to the Hall, as well as associated events.

In keeping with the guidelines shared by most social networking sites, the War Memorial Hall is implementing these guidelines with immediate effect:

Posts made by the Memorial Hall Committee

- 1 Information that is posted by the Committee will be accurate as of the time of posting.
- 2 Posts will not be used for advertising third party products or services, unless they are a part of a planned event taking place at and managed by the Memorial Hall.

General posting to the Memorial Hall Facebook site

- 1 Posts should be relevant to a specific event or topic that relates to the Hall.
- 2 Posts that contain unsuitable content will, at the discretion of the Hall, be removed.

This includes content such as, but not limited to:

Racial, ethnic, gender or religious biases

Offensive or obscene language or materials

Instigating or taking part in a 'flame war' which specifically attacks an individual, group or organisation

Personal attacks, deliberate misrepresentation, on-line bullying, insults, invective and similar misuse of social media for the public good.

If the Memorial Hall committee deems that a person or group of persons is willfully contravening these guidelines, or the spirit of these guidelines, the committee reserves the right to ban that person or persons from making further posts or comments to the site.
